

NASTE Season 2013 – Race #13

April 13, 2012

Autumn Hills Raceway, Milwaukie, Oregon

Welcome to thirteen...

On Saturday April 13, the thirteenth race of the 2013 NASTE Point Series was held at Rico Locati's picturesque Autumn Hills Raceway in Milwaukie.

Sixteen racers took up the challenge to race two rounds of two minute heats, driving gorgeous Scalextric Ferrari's in the first race and rapid Ninco DTM's in the second. The racing spanned the gamut from close and intense all the way to close and hysterical.

In the first round we were treated to a pair of pristine Ferrari 330 P4's. They looked fast, in fact they looked like they could fly. And soon it was apparent that they could as Tracy launched one nearly into orbit. After touch-down, the offending Ferrari was returned to the track where it happily continued for the remainder of the evening none the worse for wear. In another heat neither driver could get the hang of their car sliding off the track on nearly every corner for a few laps until they settled down to just most of the corners.

Getting the pointy end headed in the right direction most often was this season's current point's leader Flyin' Bryan Trachsel. Home track favorite Rico was second by a few tenths while Terry "the Mailman" Abbott turned in a strong performance to take third.

In the ladies classification it was Victoria "Zen Racer Lady" Saager leading the way with a stunning performance followed closely by Dorothy "the Hammer" Abbott and Sherry Wilson. While in the junior division Thomas "the Tominator" Flood pulled out all the stops even coming in ahead of his Astronaut dad Tracy.

For the night's second round Rico brought out the Ninco DTM's. By now drivers were tuned in and the lap counts were rising. Yet Flyin' Bryan Trachsel was still the run-away winner but this time it was Monte 'The Big Smooth' Saager just a few tenths off his torrid pace with Battlin' Bill Bostic just another tenth behind.

In the ladies classification Dorothy 'the Hammer' Abbott took top honors over Victoria Saager by a few tenths with Sherry Wilson once again claiming third. In the junior division Russell Flood regained his mojo sending Thomas 'the Tominator' Flood to a second place finish with Todd Flood finishing in third.

We'd like to thank Kelly for a great dinner of pulled pork with all the trimmings and Dorothy for our favorite chocolate desserts. Racers were once again exceptionally well fed. It was a NASTE great time.

Thank you Rico and Kelly!
