

NASTE Season 2013 – Race #14

April 27, 2013

Autumn Hills Raceway, Milwaukie, Oregon

On Saturday April 27, twelve racers took to the track, controllers in hand for his season's final trip to Autumn Hills Raceway in Milwaukie.

Our track host Rico supplied some new cars for our racing pleasure that ranged from mighty Detroit steel to those exotic cars from Stuttgart.

In the first round of two-minute heats the Detroit Steel was on display in the form of thoroughbred stallions – Scalextric Camaro's! They were quick, they were loose, and they were a lot of fun.

Turning some fast times, Terry 'the Mailman' Abbot stormed to an early. One by one, the other drivers fell by the wayside trying to catch him and in the end it was the Mailman with the victory. Rico managed second down by more than a lap while Flyin' Bryan Trachsel was third another three tenths back.

In the ladies division it was family sweep night as Dorothy 'the Hammer' Abbott took the top spot followed closely by Sherry Wilson with June Petrequin just behind in third. And in the junior class Todd Flood got the victory over Dominic Locati.

For the night's second round Rico brought out the raw power of the Porsche. Or as a certain mister Allison preferred – over-priced, imported Corvairs. And the Ninco Porsche's did take some taming. One would seem to randomly de-slot when least expected. Those that managed the dancing demons with the least excitement seemed to do best. Truly slower was faster. Smoother was best.

Top of the heap was the track owner Rico Locati but not by much. Channeling his inner smoothness Monte Saager was second by one tenth, mere feet while Flyin' Bryan was in third a lap back.

The ladies race followed the same pattern as the first with Dorothy first, Sherry second and June third. The junior division also followed this now familiar pattern with Todd giving little Dom a lesson in experience.

We'd like to thank Rico and Kelly for a great dinner and Dorothy for our favorite chocolate desserts. Racers were continually stuffed. It was another NASTE great time.

Thank you Rico and Kelly!
