

NASTE Season 2015 – Race #14

May 16, 2015

Autumn Hills, Milwaukie, Oregon

The final point race of the 2015 NASTE season was an interesting event. Twelve racers showed up, some of them came to race. Rico prepared Scalextric Ferrari's for the first round that were fast and fun. Lighted even.

Surprising the field was "the yute" Dominic Locati who sat among those tied for third. However, there would be a second round...

And for that second round Rico pulled out our favorite Ninco wonders – the Fickle FIATS of Fate. Thanks to Perry they will now be known as the Flying Fickle FIATS of Fate. Can you say "lift-off"? Not to be outdone, June performed a perfect horizontal 360. That she failed to also "stick it" was deemed irrelevant.

Charging to an impressive win overall in the NASTE Challenge class John Fisher put a lap and a half on the field with Mitch Brooks second and Al Christensen in third.

In the expert Division Rico Locati gave us all a good whuppin'. Monte Saager finished second with Terry Abbott third.

We understand the Upwords table had quite the game going – something about a fictional 1000 points – in between Chris was seen tending to her knitting. Yes, it was that kind of night...

Thanks to Kelly for providing a great feast despite being in considerable pain and all the others that contributed. It wouldn't be the same without you.
