

NASTE Season 2009 – Race #3

November 8, 2008

Cape Horn Speedway, Washougal, Wa.

The third NASTE race of the 2009 season was held Saturday, November 8, at the Cape Horn Speedway in Washougal, Washington. A group of 7 hearty racers braved the crossing of the mighty Columbia to do battle with another 4 members of the local Cape Horn group, basically the “hot shoes”, on the tight and fast 6-lane 1/24 scale track referred to as a “red bow-tie”. Racing would prove to be both fast AND furious!

NASTE member Bill Bostic supplied the cars for the IROC duel. Six, well seven Flexi's actually. All dressed as NASCAR demons. Unfortunately one car was so badly damaged during racing that it had to be retired, permanently. The carnage was so great in fact that at one point the racing action HAD to be stopped, red flag thrown, hold it right there! A pileup had occurred involving all 6 cars. Imagine that, every car on the track in one heap. How can that happen, you ask? A lot of skill combined with some bad luck. Or as we like to say in NASTE: “too bad!”

And among all the crashing, bashing, laughing and crying an amazingly good time was had. Having the best of it at the finish was NASTE's own Flyin' Bryan Trachsel, followed by host Rick Branum in second and Jim Reshonie, another one of the Cape Horn hot shoes right behind in third.

We're also proud to say that NASTE members filled in the next 4 positions greatly redeeming their miserable showing from the previous month.

A special thanks to Rick and his wife Gail for extending the invitation and especially to Gail who saw to it that we were all well fed. And Lynette's cookies (brought by Larry) were a great treat too.
