

NASTE Season 2014 – Race #3

October 12, 2013

The Fords of Fairview – Anything But Too Bad!

TooBad Motorplex in Fairview hosted the third race of the 2014 NASTE season. Race date was October 12th, 2013. The day started out warm and just kept getting hotter once the racing started.

Twenty-two racers turned out to compete on Bill Bostic's exciting three lane routed track. Bill had selected three brand new Scalextric GT40s for the evenings racing pleasure. The cars were so new they were actually stock, with only a light sanding of the rear tires.

Up first was the NASTE Challenge race for amateurs. With fourteen contestants vying for the top spot, it was Dorothy Abbott and Tyler Perry tied for the win! Russell Flood was just out of the money by a mere 3/10 of a lap. Both Dorothy and Tyler were moved up to race in the next round – the expert division.

And once again the racing was very close. Pushing the little cars to the limit and sometimes just beyond Flyin' Bryan Trachsel took top honors followed closely by Monte 'Big Smooth' Saager in second with Bill Bostic just 1/10 behind in third.

A big NASTE thanks to all that turned out to race and especially to Bill and Diane for opening their home to us. The pizza and refreshments were to notch. And the return of Dorothy's chocolate treats were scrumptious.
