

NASTE Season 2009 – Race #4

November 22, 2008

Marshall Field Raceway, Beaverton, OR

The fourth NASTE race of the 2009 season was held Saturday, November 22, at the recently renovated Marshall Field Raceway in Beaverton, Oregon.

Twelve racers showed up to hit the track with a pair of IROC offerings that Randy and Byron Stumman had prepared. The first heat offered a special treat – Ninco Karts. For those of you that haven't had the chance to race these phenomenal speed demons, just imagine a 1/32 scale car being powered by an HO motor. Slow? Yes! However, it did provide for close competition as the girls kept pace with those hard-charging guys. And after battling it out over a set of two-minute heats, Monte 'Big Smooth' Saager proved to be the Kart Master barely beating out Flyin' Bryan Trachsel by a mere tenth! But the competition was so close that a mere 4 laps separated the entire field.

It would be down to the second set of heats to bring out the winner. And up for the second set was the far more powerful Falcon-powered Saleens. And it was amid all the flying cars and mangled sections of track fencing that the home town crew squeaked out the win.

Coming in first was he of the flying fists, Byron 'Karate Kid' Stumman followed closely behind by his dad 'Racin' Randy Stumman. Flyin' Bryan finished just behind in third with the 'Kart Master' falling to fourth.

A special thanks to Randy and Byron Stumman and especially to Myrna for keeping us all so well fed. And Dorothy's chocolates are always a treat!
