

NASTE Season 2014 – Race #4

October 26, 2013

Rapid Raceway, Portland, Oregon

Happy Halloween – Slot Cars Dressed To Kill!

Rapid Raceway in northeast Portland was the host track for the Annual NASTE Halloween race for 2013. This was the second consecutive year the race was run on the 1/24 Rapid Raceway track and this year's race broke recent attendance records with twenty racers in attendance.

Entries for the NASTE Halloween races are always unique, and this year there were some outstanding examples! Also included were some previous vehicles that had not seen track use in years (brought back to life shall we say)!

The racing was hectic, loud, and well, unique.....normal for a NASTE Halloween race! Vehicles raced, crashed, broke, fell apart, and yes, some went fast!

Bryan Trachsel earned the title of NASTE Halloween Chef with his hot dog cooker. Thanks Bryan.

Terry Abbott earned the title of NASTE Halloween Crew Chief for getting multiple loaner vehicles (notice I don't refer to them as cars) on and circulating the track, as well as keeping them circulating the track (he was a VERY busy guy).

Dorothy Abbott earned the title of NASTE Halloween Queen of the Sweets and Victoria Saager shall be referred to as The NASTE Halloween Mistress of Words.

Todd Flood earned the respect of all the racers as the NASTE Halloween Corner Marshal Extraordinaire while also teaming with Cailin Dunbar to co-anchor the NASTE Halloween Race Anchor positions.

And finally Gary "Howie" Howard for the second year in a row proved he is truly The NASTE Halloween Track Master. A big NASTE thanks to Howie for hosting the race.

And thanks to all those that helped make this year's race one of the best I can remember.
