

NASTE Season 2015 – Race #4
November 22, 2014
HammerTime Speedway, Portland, Oregon

The fourth race in the NASTE 2015 point series was held at Dorothy and Terry's HammerTime Speedway. And for this night we had not only two sets of Terry's HO demons but an additional set of cars from Richard Phillis, better known as the master of the Ferndale Fray.

The first set featured the cars from Richard which proved quick and smooth. For the NASTE Challenge Thomas Flood charged out to an early lead and took first followed by hometown heroes Amanda Abbott and Nick Snowhill. For the experts it was Flyin' Bryan Trachsel taking the win followed closely by Richard "hey, those are my cars!" Phillis and Terry Abbott.

For the second set Terry brought out the off-roaders. Slippery and tippery! Showing skills like no other Victoria Saager dominated the Challenge division with Perry Petrequin in second followed by Thomas Flood. Once again it was Flyin Bryan Trachsel taking the win in the expert division with Terry Abbott in second and Bill Bostic clawing his way into third.

For the final round, it was Space Racers! Weird and fun. Blasting off into the black was Thomas Flood followed by the mercurial brother Todd Flood with Victoria Saager touching down in third. Leading the space race for the experts was Terry "The Mailman" Abbott with Bill Bostic second and Richard "not my cars" Phillis in third.
