

NASTE Season 2010 – Race #7

May 22, 2010

Autumn Hills Raceway, Milwaukie, OR

The seventh NASTE race of the 2010 season was held Saturday, May 22 on the Autumn Hills Raceway at Rico, Kelly and AJ Locati's in Milwaukie. The Hills is a 50 ft. two-lane Scalex Sport track with copper tape. Its tight layout and hairpin squeeze always provides close competition for racers of all levels.

A super group of twelve brave souls showed up to race the cars of the night - SCX Corvettes. The very same Corvettes that Rico had just completed the Beaverton season with – they were tuned to perfection. The timer was set to three minutes, the tires were cleaned, and off they went.

After the first set, 4 drivers were on the lead lap with two more just behind. It was shaping up as the closest race in NASTE memory. Storming out of the gate in the second set of heats was Bill Bostic. He ran a withering set and took the overall lead until Rico got it going to take the overall lead. Both the postman and the Big Smooth gave it a hard run but it looked like victory for Rico until the final heat when Rico's son AJ put the hammer down to come on strong and claim his first NASTE victory.

We'd like to extend a huge thanks to Rico, Kelly, and AJ for providing another great night of racing and fine food.

Be sure to join us for the final race on June 19th in Portland at Jeff's Hemi Heights Raceway. We'll see you there.
