

NASTE Season 2010 – Race #4

January 15, 2011

Hemi Heights Raceway Park, Portland, Oregon

The half-way point in the NASTE season was greeted by torrential downpours as the weather turned aggressive. But the real aggression was being displayed at Jeff Courtney's Hemi Heights Raceway this past Saturday as an exceptional field of nineteen racers turned out to do battle with Jeff's wild and crazy 1/24 scale Jalopies. They look great but handling is a little less precise and cornering speeds were slow and treacherous.

After the first set it was Jeff in first with Flyin' Bryan in second and Dave Smith in third. Would Jeff be able to hold the lead and turn in another owner fueled win?

In between sets, we did what NASTE does best – EAT! Jeff had the hot dog grill on full stun and Dorothy had once again provided a tasty selection of treats.

Back at the track for the second set, racers were getting serious and starting to adjust to the Jalopies tendencies. And this time there was a shakeup in the standings as Flyin' Bryan came through in first with Dave Smith in second and Jeff falling to third. But it would not be enough to get Bryan his first win of the season as Jeff's first set lead held up for another track-owner win. Bryan finished second and Dave was third. Following close behind was Rico, Terry and Monte. The distance between first and seventh was less than a lap a heat.

Thanks to Jeff, Jake and Cathy and all the others that brought food.

The next race is at, ok we're not sure where it's going to be held but we'll let you know as soon as we do.
